'Ma' on Way to Execution Chamber

ELIZABETH A. DUNCAN
In 11th Hour Fight to Escape Execution

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Duncan, who is scheduled to die in San Quentin's gas chamber tomorrow for the third murder of her pregnant daughter-in-law, waged an 11th hour fight for her life today.

Also hopeful that some last minute reprieve might win her the execution was Lyle, 24, and Augustine, 22, the two men who were scheduled to be executed with her.

The two men were scheduled to die last night when the 30-year-old "Ma" Duncan executed her last.

Min. Duncan was taken from San Quentin Prison here to San Francisco this morning.

The history began in 1951 when Lyle and Augustine, 17, and Ward Duncan, 16, were charged with the murder of their mother.
